

Big possibilities for small campsites

Advertise for small campsites

We are seeing an increase in searches for and bookings at small campsites. An ever larger group of campers are looking for the peace, quiet and wide open spaces that small campsites can offer like no other type of accommodation.

To the attention of enthusiasts

In 2021, ANWB introduced a specific classification for small campsites to make it easier for campers to search for and select these campsites. The guide to small campsites is gaining ground, building interest and reaching more readers. For many campers, it has become a booklet they won't leave on holiday without. The guide lists approximately 2,200 small-scale campsites that have 60 or fewer camping pitches. Especially in combination with an online package, this guide guarantees you the best possible chance to connect with your target group.

Sales packages online

In addition to our usual possibilities for advertising in the ANWB-gids Kleine Campings, ANWB offers you the opportunity to be visible online. All campsites published on anwbcamping.nl need to pay a publication fee. Depending on your existing or future activities at ANWB Kamperen, you will never pay more than € 250 as an annual fee (publication fee) for your own campsite page. When you opt for an online sales package, you will be placing an additional spotlight on your campsite. Through the sales package, you will be able to present your campsite in an even better way, so that you will be easy to find by the millions of campers who visit our website every year. If you opt for a sales package, then your annual fee (publication fee) for your own campsite page will be waived. And you will receive price benefits if your campsite is bookable through, or takes part in the Camping Key Europe benefits programme.

ANWB Check & Change

Check your details before November 1, 2023

Your editorial listing will be based on your details in our campsite database ANWB Check & Change. Therefore make sure you check your campsite details on campingcms.anwbcamping.nl in time. On this site you can also change or add details yourself or – if you are a new campsite – register your campsite. Then you can be sure your campsite is presented at its very best in the guide or online.
